Prior to 1854, a Czech had yet to set foot in the territory that would one day become the state of Nebraska. A mere thirty years later, however, Czech life was so deeply rooted in Nebraska that the state was sometimes referred to as the “Bohemia of America.” Accordingly, History Nebraska has collected many items relating to the Czechs and their adopted home. It is hoped that the following reference guide proves useful to those pursuing Nebraska Czech research.

Genealogy Tips

Research a Nebraska Czech just as you would any other individual. Use census records, newspapers, marriage records, cemetery records, land records, town histories, probate records, etc. If you are trying to find an ancestor’s place of birth in Bohemia or Moravia, try the following History Nebraska sources:

1. obituary (from local newspaper)
2. Rosicky’s History of Czechs (Bohemians) in Nebraska [978.2/R73s]
3. Sobotka’s Nebraska, Kansas Czech Settlers, 1891-1895 [978.2/Soln]
4. county/town histories (arranged alphabetically by county)
5. Burlington Northern Railroad land records (if ancestor lived near railroad)

If you cannot find the birthplace in the above sources, try searching church records (baptisms, marriages, burials), passenger lists, and family papers. Most of these items will not be at History Nebraska.

Family Histories

The History Nebraska Library has many family histories that contain reference to Czech immigrants who settled in Nebraska. To locate family histories, check your surname in the online library catalog to see if a family history has been filed in the Library pertaining to your family.

Photograph Collections

The following collections are uniquely Czech in their content. Ask Library/Archives staff members for assistance in searching for photographs of specific individuals and specific places (towns, buildings, etc.) as well as a subject search under Czech-Americans.

- Czech Historical Society Photographic Collection (RG1847)
  Compiled by Rose Rosicky for her history of Czechs in Nebraska.
- Czech-Nebraska Photographic Collection (RG3809)
  Accumulated during research for the 1993 History Nebraska Czech exhibit (colored transparencies).
- E.A. Kral Photographic Collection (RG0813)
  Photographs of Czech life in Wilber and Saline County.
- Saline County Collection (RG2491)
  Features images of Wilber, including a Czech celebration from the late 1910s or early 1920s.
Manuscript Collections

A subject card catalog index for the older manuscript collections is available in the Library/Archives Reference Room. Some possible references to Czech material may include the following search terms:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Bohemia</th>

</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Bohemians</td>
<td>Czechs</td>

Periodicals (Newspapers & Magazines)

Nebraska boasted an active Czech press during the latter part of the nineteenth century and the early decades of the twentieth century. See Rose Rosicky’s History of Czechs (Bohemians) in Nebraska [978.2/R73s] for a detailed history. The following titles are in the History Nebraska collection. Additional newspaper titles may be located by checking in the online library card catalog (Oasis) as well as verifying issues of newspapers by using the newspaper inventory notebooks (search by town name for the dates of the issues that are available) located in the Library/Archives Reference Room. Most of the titles will be on microfilm. The list below gives each periodical’s place of publication, year of establishment, Czech title, English translation, and call number. Known indexes, abstractions, and/or translations are also noted.

Publications

The following is a list of the books, articles, theses, dissertations, and other printed materials that were located in the library catalogs under “Czech,” “Bohemia,” and “Moravia” (and variations thereof) in 1999, along with a few additions and corrections that were added in 2010. It is fairly exhaustive, but there are undoubtedly other materials in the Library stacks that belong on this list. The following information is provided as recommendations to help you locate further titles in the Library collection by using certain terms in Oasis. The term “Czech” may be used in the Standard Search screen in Anywhere for all titles that have the term Czech within the content of the catalog record. To locate separately cataloged Hospodar articles, list the call number 630.5 H79 in Anywhere. You may also use the Enhance Search for Boolean searches. For example, to locate Czech cookbooks use the term Czech and 641.5 in the blanks along with the term Anywhere in the drop down menus. To locate Czech family histories/genealogies use the term Czech Americans and 929.
