Prior to 1854, a Czech had yet to set foot in the territory that would one day become the state of Nebraska. A mere thirty years later, however, Czech life was so deeply rooted in Nebraska that the state was sometimes referred to as the “Bohemia of America.” Accordingly, History Nebraska (formerly the Nebraska State Historical Society-NSHS) has collected many items relating to the Czechs and their adopted home. It is hoped that the following reference guide proves useful to those pursuing Nebraska Czech research.

Genealogy Tips

Research a Nebraska Czech just as you would any other individual. Use census records, newspapers, marriage records, cemetery records, land records, town histories, probate records, etc. If you are trying to find an ancestor’s place of birth in Bohemia or Moravia, try the following Library/Archives sources at History Nebraska (via the Library/Archives Reference Room at 1500 R Street) OR use this as a bibliography to locate sources that may be available in other libraries:

1. Obituary (from local newspaper)
2. Rosicky’s History of Czechs (Bohemians) in Nebraska [978.2/R73s]
3. Sobotka’s Nebraska, Kansas Czech Settlers, 1891-1895 [978.2/Soln]
4. County/town histories (arranged alphabetically by county)
5. Burlington Northern Railroad land records (if ancestor lived near railroad)

If you cannot find the birthplace in the above sources, try searching church records (baptisms, marriages, and burials), passenger lists, and family papers. Most of these items will not be at History Nebraska.

Family Histories

The Nebraska History Library (NHL) at History Nebraska has many family histories that contain reference to Czech immigrants who settled in Nebraska. To locate family histories, check your surname in the [online library catalog](menu on website currently listed as Library Search) to see if a family history is filed in the NHL pertaining to your family.

Government Records

[U.S. Works Project Administration Federal Writers Project - Nebraska State Historical Society, 1932-1942 (RG515)](Czechs (Page 19, SG2, Series 1, Research Files, Ethnic History, Czechs Box 36, 262.1)).

Photograph Collections

The following collections are uniquely Czech in their content. Ask Library/Archives staff members for assistance in searching for photographs of specific individuals and specific places (towns, buildings, etc.) as well as a subject search under Czech-Americans.

[Czech Historical Society Photographic Collection (RG1847)](Compiled by Rose Rosicky for her history of Czechs in Nebraska).
Czech-Nebraska Photographic Collection (RG3809)
Accumulated during research for the 1993 NSHS Czech exhibit (colored transparencies).

E.A. Kral Photographic Collection (RG0813)
Photographs of Czech life in Wilber and Saline County.

Saline County Collection (RG2491)
Features images of Wilber, including a Czech celebration from the late 1910s or early 1920s.

Manuscript Collections

A subject card catalog index for the older manuscript collections is available in the Library/Archives Reference Room. Some possible references to Czech material may include the following search terms:

- Bohemia
- Czechoslovak
- Czech-Americans
- Bohemians
- Czechs
- Czech
- Czechs in Nebraska

Note: This card catalog has not been updated for collections received after ca. 1990. Collections that are more recent can be searched on our website by using the main Search box located on our home page. Use the same search terms as above paired with the term “manuscripts.” Some additional information may be found on the web page on the HN website titled “Manuscript Collections.”

The list below is not an exhaustive list of Czech related material located in the Manuscript collection. The HN Library/Archives Reference staff (via e-mail, correspondence, or in-person) will assist you with the card catalog listed above as well as locating data in other in-house databases, such as other archival inventories that are not available online.

Additional Sources:

Nebraska Historic Buildings Survey:  (Historic Preservation Survey) This survey documents many buildings constructed by Czech immigrants in Nebraska, as well as several listed in the National Register of Historic Places. It contains information on owners, institutions, builders, and architects, as well as historical narrative. The survey covers pioneer dwellings, lodge and Sokol halls, churches, cemeteries, and farmsteads. For specific inquiries, contact the Historic Preservation Division of History Nebraska for an appointment.

Nebraska History Museum Collections: The museum collections department preserves artifacts associated with Czech-Nebraska history and culture that can provide valuable research information. The museum collections department uses a Past Perfect Online program where they are attempting to photograph museum exhibits. For 2019, they now have a link that connects you to the online records of only Czech artifacts. For specific inquiries, contact the Museum Collections Department at the Nebraska History Museum (131 Centennial Mall North) for an appointment.

Publications Division: On our website, we now have available in one location from a History Nebraska Blog “The Czech-American Experience.” This blog provides links to the articles that appeared in the Nebraska History Magazine (Volume 74, #3&4, 1993) by the same title and lists other Nebraska History Magazine articles relating to Czechs in Nebraska.

Special Presentation: David Murphy, “Old Country Roots: Czech-American Landscapes,” You Tube video, 1:06:27, November 1996 (posted April 9, 2014). A brief interpretive survey of some of the most prominent features of Czech material culture that were replicated in the Czech-American landscape.

Czech Exhibit: David Murphy curated a Czech exhibit entitled, “The Heart of Two Continents-Czechs and Nebraska,” for the Nebraska History Museum, Lincoln, in 1991-1993. The exhibit is no longer on display at the Nebraska History Museum, but the exhibit script and related information is available.

Serials (Newspapers & Periodicals)

Nebraska boasted an active Czech press during the latter part of the nineteenth century and the early decades of the twentieth century. See Rose Rosicky’s History of Czechs (Bohemians) in Nebraska [978.2/R73s] for a detailed history. The titles in this section are located in the HN Library/Archives. Microfilm (in the L/A Reference Room) or original titles (located in closed stacks of the NHL) may be used in the L/A Reference Room with some microfilm available for interlibrary loan (originals magazines are not available for ILL)

Additional local community newspaper titles from across Nebraska may be located by checking the online Nebraska Newspaper Inventory via the website. Most of the newspapers will be on microfilm, but listings of newspapers that have been digitized are available. This list also includes some Non-Nebraska Czech Periodicals that are currently in the Nebraska History Library (microfilm and originals). Additional information about all newspapers and periodicals may be found in the online library catalog (menu on website currently listed as Library Search).

Publications

The following is a list of the books, articles, theses, dissertations, and other printed materials that were located in the library catalogs under “Czech,” “Bohemia,” and “Moravia” (and variations thereof) in 1999, along with a few additions and corrections that were added in 2010. It is exhaustive, but there are undoubtedly other materials in the Library stacks that belong on this list. The following information is provided as recommendations to help you locate further titles in the Library collection by using certain terms in the online catalog Mandarin. The term “Czech” may be used in the Standard Search screen in Anywhere for all titles that have the term Czech within the content of the catalog record. To locate separately cataloged Hospodar articles, list the call number 630.5 H79 in Anywhere. You may also use the Enhance Search for Boolean searches. For example, to locate Czech cookbooks use the term Czech and 641.5 in the blanks along with the term Anywhere in the drop down menus. To locate Czech family histories/genealogies use the term Czech Americans and 929.
