BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

A native of Sheldon, Minnesota, Addison E. Sheldon attended Doane College at Crete, Nebraska. He received his M.A. degree from the University of Nebraska in 1904 and then went on to Columbia University where he received his Ph.D. in 1919. Sheldon homesteaded in Cherry County, Nebraska from 1886-1888. He married Jennie Denton in 1884. She died in 1897, and he later married Margaret E. Thompson in 1907.

Sheldon served in the Nebraska House of Representatives from 1897-1899, and from 1906-1921 he was the director of the Nebraska Legislative Reference Bureau. He served as the Secretary and Superintendent of the Nebraska State Historical Society from 1917 until his death in 1943. A.E. Sheldon was a noted author of Nebraska history books including, Semi-centennial history of Nebraska, 1904; History and stories of Nebraska, 1919; Nebraska civil government, 1924; and Nebraska, the land and the people, 1931.

Addison E. Sheldon died at his home in Lincoln, Nebraska, on November 24, 1943. He was survived by a daughter, Ruth, and a son, Philip. Memorial services were held at the Nebraska State Capitol building, and he was layed to rest at Wyuka Cemetery in Lincoln.
