The Lincoln division of the Hibernian Benevolent Society was organized in 1885. The main function of this Irish organization was the encouragement of immigration to the Lincoln area.

This collection consists of one volume containing membership information for the Lincoln division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. The records date from 1885-1889.

Membership volume, 1885-1889

Subject entries:

Ancient Order of Hibernians (Lincoln, Neb.)
Emigration and immigration -- Nebraska -- Lincoln
Irish in Nebraska
Lincoln (Neb.) -- History