HISTORICAL NOTE

Antelope County is located in northeast Nebraska and contains 864 square miles of land. The county was organized on June 15, 1871, by an act of Legislature on March 1, 1871. Before any town had been laid out, I. N. Taylor, agent of the Omaha and Northwestern Railroad was sent to suggest a suitable location for a county seat. He suggested Oakdale. After several elections, Oakdale was designated and a courthouse was erected there in 1874 but burned in 1875. In January of 1884, Neligh became the county seat but a courthouse was not erected until 1894 and was dedicated on January 8, 1895.

The first settlement in the county occurred in August of 1868. Major nationalities represented by the earliest settlers on the county were chiefly German, Danish, Swedish, and French. In 1870 Antelope County had a population of 549. To population in 1980 was 8,675.

The Fremont, Elkhorn and Missouri Valley Railroad was the first to run its line into Antelope County.

The county was named for the antelope.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Archives holds only a few real estate volumes for the county in Subgroup One, 1912-1943. The original assessment volumes of the county, 1876-1912, could not be located at the time of this inventory (2001). Assessments from 1944-current are still located at the county courthouse.

We hold no records for the Treasurer's office of the county. Original records are still at the courthouse in Neligh.

The county commissioners minutes which would be included in Subgroup Three, are still at the county courthouse. We have only a scattered number of documents, 1899-1919, which were supplemental documents to the board proceedings and board of equalization. Included are tax claims foldered chronologically, 1896-1916. We also hold the original drawings for the county courthouse.

Marriage records are included in Subgroup Four, Series One, 1876-1954. Also included in this subgroup is a box of bills of sale, 1880-1893, filed by name of purchaser in A-Z folders. The Election Records of the county remain at the county courthouse as well as other records of the county clerk's office.

We hold no records for Subgroup Six, County Court. The probate case files of the county, 1876-current, are stored on security microfilm for the county.

There are two boxes of bills of exception and depositions of the District Court, 1922-1980, which were transferred to the Archives in 1982.

The Superintendent of School's records and the School Census which would be in Subgroups Eight and Nine, are still at the county courthouse.
