The Beatrice Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle (known as the Beatrice C.L.S.C.) was originally established as the Beatrice Chautauqua Circle. Although the Chautauqua movement had an earlier presence in Beatrice, Nebraska, the Beatrice Chautauqua Circle held its first formal meeting on September 24, 1894, where Charles F. Rogers was elected President; Dora D. Nickell, Vice-President; Frannie M. Hershey, Secretary; and Nellie E. Porter, Treasurer. The name changed to the Beatrice Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle sometime in 1895.

According to the Beatrice C.L.S.C. constitution, the organization “. . . aims to promote habits of reading and study in history, literature, science and art, to give college graduates a review of the college course, to secure for those whose educational privileges are limited the college graduate’s general outlook upon the world and life and to encourage close, connected, persistent thinking.” The group welcomed “any person of good moral character” who could earn the votes of the majority of members. The Beatrice C.L.S.C. was the local manifestation of a national Chautauqua movement to promote adult education, culture, and intellectual entertainment. Beatrice C.L.S.C. programs featured lectures, musical performances, discussions, readings, vesper services, and an annual banquet.

This collection is arranged in two series: 1) Constitution and minutes and 2) Miscellaneous. The materials relate to the activities and affairs of the Circle.

Series 1 contains three of record books of the Beatrice Chautauqua Circle/Beatrice C.L.S.C., with handwritten constitution, by-laws, attendance records, and meeting minutes, 1894-1899. These bound volumes have various programs, news clippings, and other ephemera attached or tucked in.

Series 2 contains printed matter, news clippings, and announcements. This includes programs from the Beatrice C.L.S.C.’s annual banquet, Beatrice Chautauqua Assembly (Inter-State) materials which predate the founding of Beatrice C.L.S.C., an announcement for a 1907 Beatrice Chautauqua Assembly C.L.S.C. Round Table meeting, and printed matter from other organizations with arguably kindred missions, such as a Women’s Christian Temperance Union quiz card and a Nebraska Epworth Assembly program. Also included are articles about the Chautauqua movement, including an 1898 news clipping with a poem titled, “A Poetical Bouquet,” about Chautauqua’s growth and development; a 1958, Mar. 22, Hartford Times article “Enchanted Tent for Naive World,” about Chautauqua history; and two handouts from a 1971 class on “Trends in Adult Education,” with bibliographies.
