RG5820.AM: Candle Light Club (Lincoln, Neb.)

Records: 1920s-1970s

Lincoln, Lancaster County, Neb.: Nonprofit organization

Size: 0.6 cu.ft.; 2 boxes

BACKGROUND NOTE

The Candle Light Club was established in Lincoln, Nebraska in 1901. The purpose of the group was to have intellectual discussions and papers read by the individuals of the club. To gain membership you had to be voted in and the club contained 30-35 of Lincoln's prominent citizens. They met several times a year for dinners and discussion groups involving a range of topics including history, education, economics and current events. Most of the meetings were held at the Cornhusker Hotel and then the Lincoln University Club.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of records of the Candle Light Club. Contained in the collection are programs, correspondence between members, ballot cards, event cards, and financial records. The records date from the 1920s through the 1970s.

Note: See the audio and photo components [RG5820.AU/PH] for a reel-to-reel audio recording and accompanying 35mm slides of the Lincoln Country Club ca. 1979. See the library collection for The income and expenses of Nebraska state government: a talk given before the Lincoln Candle Light Club by Senator Otto H. Liebers, 1956 [336 L62i].
