HISTORICAL NOTE

Chappell, Nebraska, is the county seat of Deuel County. A post office was established there on December 27, 1886. The town was platted in August of 1884 along the line of the Union Pacific Railroad. It won the county seat election in January 1889. After several county seat elections, it was declared the official seat of county government August 11, 1894.

Chappell was named for Charles Henry Chappell, Superintendent of the railroad's second division. Chappell was incorporated as a village October 1, 1907. It is now a second class city.
