The collection consists of a letter written by John S. Davenport of Hubbell, Nebraska, November 22, 1897 to Jay Amos Barrett. The letter provides Davenport family history/genealogy and describes the family's involvement in the early Mormon church and its move west, including the winter of 1846 in Florence, Nebraska. Also included is a typed transcription of the letter.

DESCRIPTION

Letter, November 22, 1897

Subject headings:

Barrett, Jay Amos, 1865-1936
Davenport family
Davenport, John S., 1826-1902
Davenport, Madorah (Pack), 1831-1902
Florence (Neb.)
Hubbell (Neb.)
Mormons
Mormon trail
Reminiscences

Revised TMM 02-18-2016