BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

J. J. Exon was born in Geddes, South Dakota, August 9, 1921 the son of John and Luella Exon. He attended public schools in Lake Andes, South Dakota and graduated from the University of Omaha in 1941. After graduation he served in the Army Signal Corps during World War II, and later in the Army Reserves until 1949.

His political career began on the state committee for Governor Brooks, 1957. He was later campaign manager for Morrison, 1959; on the state committee for Congressman Callan and Lt. Governor Sorensen, 1964; state coordinator for the Johnson-Humphrey Campaign, 1964; delegate to Democratic Committees, 1964-1969, also served on the Executive Committee of the Nebraska Democratic Party, 1964-1969. He was elected Governor of Nebraska in 1969 and served until 1979. He was elected a senator from Nebraska as served from 1979-1997. He was a member and past president of the Lincoln Optimists Club and a past Lt. Governor of Optimists International; a member of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, Mason, Shrine, VFW Eagles, Elks and American Legion. He was a member of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Lincoln. After his retirement he served on a Congressional Committee on the threat of weapons of mass destruction and recommended the formation of an agency similar to the Department of Homeland Security.

Exon was married in 1943 to Patricia Pros and they have three children, Steve, Pam and Candy Exon. He died of cancer June 10, 2005 and was buried in Wyuka Cemetery. He was the first person to lie in state in the State Capitol Building.
