Nebraska. Governor
Governor's Residence/Mansion
1956-2011
.25 cubic feet

This collection consists of the history of the Governor's residence/mansion in newspaper clippings and brochures. The collection includes information about the construction of the new residence (1956-1958); interior and exterior furnishings and décor of the residence/mansion; general information about the governors and their families. The scrapbook consists of information, committee members, and research for the State House China Project. The Nebraska organization for china painters chose a theme of state wild flowers for submission by china artists throughout the state.
