NEBRASKA STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY COLLECTION RECORD

RG1146.AM: Krebs, Karl Gottlieb, 1829-1909

Diary (in German): 1864-1865
Deer Creek Mission, Wyoming Territory: Missionary
Size: 1 volume

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection consists of a diary (in German) kept by Karl Krebs while a missionary among the Indians at Deer Creek Mission. A transcript of the diary can be found as part of “Kirchenblatt- Report of Evangelical Lutheran Missionaries to the Indians,” translated by Marie Nausler for the Nebraska State Historical Society. Copies of the transcript can be found in the NSHS library and in RG0876 (Deer Creek Mission). A partial transcription can be found with the diary, however this transcription is somewhat different than the one found in the transcribed report.

INVENTORY

Diary (in German), 1864-1865

Subjects:

American Home Missionary Society
Congregationalism
Deer Creek Mission (Wyoming Territory)
Krebs, Karl Gottlieb, 1829-1909
Missionaries
Missions, Home
United Church of Christ, Nebraska Conference

Revised TMM 11-17-2016