SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Subgroup One, City Council, is divided into seven series: 1) Index to Minutes, 1871-1972; 2) Proceedings, 1871-1975; 3) Ordinances, 1950-1969; 4) Correspondence & Supplemental Documents, 1869-1909; 5) Zoning Board, 1921-1941; 6) Excise Board, 1889-1899; and, 7) Bethany Village, annexed suburb of Lincoln. Bethany Village Council Meeting Minutes, 1898-1926. Series One through three can be found on microfilm, and a portion of series four, 1869-1891 is also on microfilm. Records of the Zoning Board include volumes of applications and appeals to the board for 1921-1941 and a newspaper scrapbook, 1921-1924.

Subgroup Two, City Clerk, consists of Voter Registration records for the City of Lincoln, 1915-1924 on microfilm, and voter registration books by wards for the city, 1906-1926 & n.d.

The records of the Treasurer consists of a fund journal for the city, 1924-1929, and several volumes of cancelled bonds and coupons, 1872-1902, in Subgroup Three, City Treasurer.

The bulk of this collection exists in Subgroup Four, Police Department. Most of these records came to the Archives in November of 1926. Additions were added in September of 1976 and July 2017. In 1981, the jail registers were microfilmed and originals destroyed. This subgroup is divided into the following series: 1) Daily Reports, 1897-1913; 2) Jail Registers, 1886-1943; 3) Day Books, 1886-1922; 4) Prisoner Records, 1887-1924; 5) Stolen Property, 1887-1945; 6) Monthly Reports, 1905-1955; 7) Time Books & Payroll, 1922-1957; 8) Fiscal Records, 1910-1929; 9) Miscellaneous Police Registers, 1897-1956; 10) Human Rights Commission, 1971-1972; and, 11)
Annual Reports, Lincoln City Police Dept., ca. 1942-2007. Of particular interest are the reports of arrests and activities which can be found in the jail registers and Day books of this subgroup. Prisoner records include mug shots of prisoners, 1915-1924. Personnel records include payroll & time books, 1922-1957. The Day Books of series three register daily activities of the police department, roll call, and give some accounts of particular crimes or arrests. Also included in some volumes are lists of officers with dates of hire and retirement or discharge.

The records of Series Ten, Human Rights Commission, were given to the society in April of 1979 and include transcripts of proceedings, 1972 and summaries and surveys of the commission. These records record the proceedings of hearings and investigations resulting in the complaint of one Cleveland Randolph of police brutality in October 1971. Included is a two-volume report prepared by the Commission in response to these allegations. The hearings were held November 4-18, 1971.

Subgroup Five, Municipal Courts, include police judge's dockets for Lincoln Police Court, 1871-1922; for Havelock Police Court, 1909-1928; and for University Place Police Court, 1918-1926. These dockets are microfilmed and shelved in the reference room.

Subgroup Six, Public Works Department, is arranged into five series: 1) Minutes, 1888-1894; 2) City Employee Association, 1930-1950; 3) Municipal Coal and Gasoline, 1920-1940; 4) Plans and Diagrams, n.d.; and 5) Sanitary Dist. #1, 1891-1962. The plans of series three include water main, sewer, and storm drain plats for the city.

Subgroup Seven, City Planning Division, consists of miscellaneous planning studies and reports, 1961-1970. Included are area studies on Railway Conflict Points, 1969-1970.

Included in Subgroup Eight, are plans and diagrams new construction and additions to building and residences of the city dating approximately from 1906 to the 1960s. These drawings are currently undergoing inventory.

Subgroup Nine, City Engineer, includes early sidewalk resolution and grade books for Lincoln, 1869-1968.

Records of the Lincoln Landfill Committee, Subgroup Ten, include correspondence, reports, and maps of the committee to locate a new landfill, 1985-1986.

Subgroup Eleven, Lincoln Fire Department, is arranged into three series: 1) Fire Records, 1886-1934; 2) W. F. Chapman Fire Company #1, 1882; and 3) Miscellany, 1873-1936. Of particular interest are the fire records of series one. The city fire record on microfilm, 1886-1934, includes a history of the department to 1940, and a detailed report of fires in the city during this timespan. Also included in series one is a fire record for Havelock, 1906-1930. Series three includes records compiled from newspaper accounts of fires by the Federal Writers Project.
Records of the Village of West Lincoln, Subgroup Twelve, consist of minutes and ordinances of West Lincoln city council, 1927-1965, on microfilm. Included is information on the annexation of West Lincoln to the city. The records were borrowed for the city clerk’s office and microfilmed in 1984.

The minutes and ordinances of the Lincoln City Council were loaned to the Historical Society in 1975 for microfilming. The supplemental documents to the minutes were transferred to the society in 1965 with additions being added to the collection in 1986 and 1991 by donation. Early voting records for the city were transferred in June of 1965, and the voter registration on microfilm, 1915-1924, was microfilmed by the Historical Society in 1981. As previously stated, the bulk of the police department and municipal court records were transferred to the Historical Society in November of 1926. Additional material was received in September of 1976. Records of the Public Works Department were transferred to the society in 1987.
