

NEBRASKA STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY COLLECTION RECORD

RG1219.AM: Maun, John H., 1819-1887

Letters, etc.: ca. 1847-1887
Brownville, Nemaha County, Neb.
Size: 1 folder

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Born in Newcastle West, Ireland, in 1819, John H. Maun came to Brownville, Nebraska Territory, in April 1857. He served with Company E, 2nd Nebraska Cavalry during the Civil War. He married Ellen O'Callaghan, and the couple had eleven children (two died in infancy). Maun died at his home in Jackson, Dakota County, Nebraska, on April 28, 1887.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection consists of one folder containing correspondence of John H. Maun to his wife, Ellen, 1862-1886. Letters from 1862 were written while Maun served with Co. E, 2nd Nebraska Cavalry. Also included are a history of the Maun Family and a history of Brownville, Nebraska's early days transcribed from an early diary of John H. Maun.

INVENTORY

John H. Maun letters, etc.

Subject headings:

Brownville (Neb.) -- History
Maun family
Maun, John H., 1819-1887
Nemaha County (Neb.) -- History
United States. Army. Nebraska Cavalry Regiment, 2nd