Papers: 1897-1901
Fullerton, Nance County, Neb.; and Washington, D.C.: Assistant Secretary of War, politician
Size: 27.5 cu. ft.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

George DeRue Meiklejohn was born at Weyauwega, Waupaca County, Wisconsin, on August 27, 1857, the son of Peter and Hannah Meiklejohn. He received his early education in Wisconsin. He served as principal of high schools in Weyauwega, 1876, and in Liscomb, Iowa, from 1877-1878. In 1880 he graduated from the University of Michigan with an LL.B. and was admitted to the bar the same year. He began his practice in Fullerton, Nebraska, and served as the County Attorney of Nance County, Nebraska, from 1881-1884. Meiklejohn was elected to the State Senate in 1884 and served as its president, 1886-1888. He also served as Chairman of the Republican State Convention, 1887-1888, and was Lieutenant Governor of Nebraska, 1890-1891. In 1892 he was elected to the 53rd U.S. Congress from the Third Nebraska District and re-elected in 1894.

The climax of Meiklejohn’s career came in 1897, when President McKinley appointed him the Assistant Secretary of War, an appointment he held until March 1901. During the Spanish American War, he frequently served as Acting Secretary of War due to the illness of Secretary Russell Alger. In 1900 Meiklejohn ran for the U.S. Senate from Nebraska as a Republican but was defeated in the Legislature’s balloting. Leaving Nebraska in 1900, Meiklejohn turned his attention toward his extensive mining interests in the Unites States and Mexico. He lived in Omaha for several years beginning in 1909, but was not active in the practice of law during that time. He died of heart disease in a hospital in Los Angeles, California, on April 19, 1929, at the age of 72. He was never married.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of manuscript material arranged in four series: 1) General Correspondence, 1897-1901; 2) Government Reports; 3) Political Data, 1899-1901; and 4) Miscellany.

The collection relates to Meiklejohn’s career as Assistant Secretary of War, 1897-1901 and to his activities in Nebraska politics. The bulk of the material consists of letters and documents relating to the following: the federally financed Alaskan Relief Expedition, 1898-99; requests for pension increases and transportation; requests for assistance in obtaining military appointments and government jobs; government military contracts; Nebraska politics; the Spanish American War; American Colonial Policy; Meiklejohn’s mining and petroleum interests; and John J. Pershing’s attempts to gain advancement in the military organization.
Major correspondents include: Berlin, R. S., regarding the Nebraska Petroleum and Mining Company in Nebraska politics; Cody, W. F.; Deane, G. A. A.; Hammond, Ross L., concerning Nebraska politics; Jenkins, W. S., Assistant Auditor for the Philippines; Magoon, Charles E., politics; Nebraska 1st Regiment, list of casualties at Manila, August 23, 1898; Otis, General E. S.; Pershing, John J.; Rosewater, Hon. Edward, Nebraska politics; Shafter, General, Spanish American War; Slaughter, Brad D., Nebraska politics; Stotsenburg, John M., military affairs; Thurston, Sen. John M., telegrams signed by Otis regarding progress of the war in the Philippines; Wood, Brig. General Leonard, conditions in Cuba and Puerto Rico.

(Acc.1962)
UNDERSTANDING THE ARRANGEMENT OF THE CORRESPONDENCE IN THIS COLLECTION

- As far as possible, the letters have been kept in original order, as filed by the Meiklejohn staff. Any recognizable changes to that order have been indicated in the "Description" section of the collection inventory.

- The correspondence includes both incoming and outgoing letters.

- It is extremely important to maintain the original order of this collection. Please take extra care to not move or rearrange any letters in any folders.

- The letters were filed in several alpha-chronological sequences, that is, for a certain date span (variable) the letters could be filed alphabetically by the name of the person who wrote it or to whom it was written, the company or government department they represented, or sometimes by topic (pension letters, for example), or by the name of the person the letter is about.

- Once the letter was filed in the correct alphabetical section it was not further alphabetized. For example section "A-Ae" could contain letters from Addison, Ackermann, Abbott, Adair, but these would be chronologically, not alphabetically, arranged within the section. When looking for a particular writer, researchers MUST check the correct alphabetical section in its entirety to be sure nothing is missed.

- Letters were filed with the earliest dates in the back of each alphabetical section, most recent in front.

- Some letters may appear to be chronologically misplaced, but may have been filed with earlier or later correspondence on the same subject or about the same person. This is especially true at the beginning and end of years or sequences. Do not rearrange the letters.

- The Meiklejohn staff was not always consistent within its own filing system. Researchers should think creatively about where to look for writers or types of correspondence. For example letters from the Secretary of Agriculture might be filed under the alphabetical sequence for his last name, or in section "Ag" for "Agriculture, Secretary" or both places.

- Some alpha-chronological sequences are labeled either "Official," "Semi-official," "Personal," or "Military," while some sequences are unlabeled. It is not always clear why certain letters were filed under certain categories or were left blank. As far as we can tell, these were the original designations on the correspondence files when they were received at NSHS, and they have been retained.

- Some letters from certain correspondents are filed by name. These letters are filed at the end of Series One, with the exception of the John Pershing letters, which are filed at the end of the "P" sequences. The Pershing letters were re-filed by NSHS staff at some time during the four decades since the collection was received, and it is possible that the other letters filed by name may also not be in their original order.

- Some letters were selected from most folders and listed with content summaries on the first inventory created for the collection when it was initially processed by NSHS staff in the 1960s. These letters are also listed on the current inventory. Usually the listed items are interesting and informational, but occasionally the reasons for their selection are unclear.
