

NEBRASKA STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY COLLECTION RECORD

RG5840.AM: Nebraska Press Women

Records: ca. 1946-2012

Nebraska: Professional association for women journalists

Size: 6.0 cu.ft.; 3 boxes & 22 scrapbooks

BACKGROUND NOTE

The Nebraska Women's Press Club was founded on March 22, 1946, when newspaper women gathered at Omaha's Hotel Paxton for breakfast, compliments of the Nebraska Press Association, which was not yet open to women. Charter member Anna Kuhle served as the first president. For a more detailed and up-to-date timeline of the Nebraska Press Women, see their website at:

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of the records of the Nebraska Press Women. The collection includes correspondence, minutes of meetings, annual convention programs, newsletters, reports to the national association, etc. Also included are twenty-two oversized scrapbooks. The collection is unprocessed, but a basic inventory is available.
