RG4348.AM: Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Examiners

Examiners Reports, Nebraska: 1912-1916
Hartford, Connecticut
Size: 3 volumes

HISTORICAL NOTE

According to available records, the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company was incorporated in 1857, and licensed in 1891. It was one of the most active of the companies making land loans in the state, and is still active.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of three volumes of reports on loan applications made by Nebraska farmers.

These reports give personal information about the applicant and give detailed descriptions of the land to be held as collateral. The back of each report shows a diagram of the property described.
