HISTORICAL NOTE

The Platte Valley Public Power and Irrigation District was organized under the provisions of S.F. 310, passed by the Nebraska Legislature in 1933. Prior to 1970, the Platte Valley Public Power and Irrigation District was a joint owner of the Nebraska Public Power System, along with the Loup River Public Power District. On Jan. 1, 1970 these districts merged with the Consumers Public Power District to form the Nebraska Public Power District with headquarters in Columbus, Nebraska.
