

RG4873MI Hugh LeZotte

Hugh LeZotte is a Native Nebraskan. He moved to Ogallala in 1926 and worked for Keith County Studio from the early 1930's. In 1943 Mr. LeZotte bought the studio from W.H. Biebes, changing the name of the business to The LeZotte Studio. In the early 30's, the Keith County Studio became the first photographic studio in western Nebraska to be a Bell & Howell dealer. In 1947, LeZotte attended a professional school of photography in Warsaw, Indiana. [Bell & Howell plant]
