Prints
1. 3.5” x 4.5” Five women under an wooden arbor at the home of George and Nellie (Forsyth) Meisner in Shelton, Buffalo County, NE. Identification written on the back of the photograph is (left to right) Mrs. Reddington (Mildred’s aunt), Aunt Eva Ross, Aunt Mute [sp?] Jones, Aunt Nellie Brauns, and Mrs. Scott Smith (Mildred’s mother). ca.1915
2. 5.5” x 3.25” Two men and a women seated in a swing under a large wooden arbor at the Meisner home in Shelton, NE. ca.1915
3. 5.5” x 3.5” Two men and two women seated on the grass in the garden at the Meisner home in Shelton, NE. A wooden sing can be seen in the background. ca.1915
4. 7.75” x 6” Large two story frame house with a watch tower and ginger breading. The house was completed in August 1894 for George Meisner in Shelton, NE [see additional information]. An early automobile is parked in front of the home. ca. 1910.
5. 6” x 8” Full length studio portrait of James Forsyth, brother of Nellie Forsyth Meisner, wearing Spanish-American War military uniform, ca. 1898. Photographer: unknown
6. 5” x 8” Studio portrait of likely of James Forsyth, brother of Nellie Forsyth Meisner, wearing World War I era military uniform, ca. 1918.