Records: 1923-1991
Cubic Ft.: 6.0

TIMELINE

1917: Prohibition Act made Governor responsible for enforcement. The Governor appointed an enforcement officer to have active charge of the work of the enforcement of automobile theft and liquor laws.

1927: Office of the State Sheriff created to assist Governor in enforcing criminal laws.

1933: Enforcement of traffic control laws added to duties

1937: Nebraska Safety Patrol created as division of the Department of Roads and Irrigation with the State Sheriff as its chief officer.

1941: State Sheriff dropped as chief officer of the division. Chief officer became "superintendent of Law Enforcement and Public Safety."

1969: Nebraska Safety Patrol renamed as Nebraska State Patrol.

The record group consists of records as follows(organized as series):

- 1) Investigation Files, 1923-1938
- 2) Day Books, 1928, 1931-1933
- 3) Arrest Record Books, 2 vols., 1937-1939
- 4) County Reports, 1937-1938
- 5) Publications: Newsletter-Pro Bono Publico, Annual Report, Report/Studies
- 6) Correspondence

The investigation files contain reports of deputy state sheriffs and correspondence relating to the search for evidence and participants in the events being investigated. The investigation files were received from the Board of Paroles February 1, 1983. The day books contain annual, monthly, and daily reports of crimes reported and arrests made. The origin of the daybooks is uncertain. The arrest record books consist of 2 small ledger volumes that list the crime/charge, date of arrest, sentence, and extraditions. The publications and reports series consist of copies of the Nebraska Safety Patrol newsletter, Pro Bono Publico (1948-1956); Annual Reports of the Nebraska State Patrol (1969-1973); County Reports, 1937-1938. The correspondence consists of two boxes from State Patrol administrative officials to the Governor (1987-1991) that pertain to upcoming legislation(statutes/laws) and proposed policy changes.
