

Fees for the Use of Still Images

(Effective November 3, 2015)

Still image representations of photographs, documents, published materials, artifacts and other materials from the collections of History Nebraska, or of spaces and activities of History Nebraska, may be used by individuals and corporate entities in various ways. This schedule specifies the fees charged for such uses. For details on our guidelines for use, see Use Policy.

How fees are charged. No use fee is charged for reference copies (100 dpi, 500 pixels on long dimension, jpeg format), personal research or enjoyment, for use by teachers or students for class instruction or assignments, or for use by Nebraska local news media. Otherwise, use of still images is charged according to fees based on COMMERCIAL or NON-COMMERCIAL characteristics, defined thus:

- Non-Commercial Use: Use by non-profit entities (proof of non-profit status, certified by the IRS, is required), public broadcasters, accredited educational institutions and their departments (including academic presses), and government entities.
- Commercial Use: Use in a profit-making venture.
- Genealogy Use: There is no fee for self-published documents, books, scrapbooks/memory books when fewer than 50 copies are produced and $5 per image when 50 or more copies are produced.
- Personal or Family Genealogy Internet Use: There is a $5 per image fee for use on personal or family genealogy websites. Must be approved by History Nebraska reference staff member.

Duplication and Special Access Fees. Use fees are charged in addition to any charges for access or duplication services provided by History Nebraska. See FEES FOR DUPLICATION & SPECIAL ACCESS for details.

Direct promotion. Any still image used in a product may also be used in the direct promotion of the work without requiring additional permissions or incurring additional use fees from the NSHS.

Multiple use “bundles.” Broadcasters and publishers may choose “bundled” rates for projects containing multiple uses.

Bulk rates. Some projects may qualify for bulk rates. Contact the Library/Archives Reference Staff at 402-471-4751 or hn.reference@nebraska.gov for pricing.

Payment. Use fees must be paid or invoiced in advance of receiving use permissions and are non-refundable. Nebraska state agencies must pay through IBT. Use fees are subject to change without notice.

Waivers. History Nebraska reserves the right to waive fees or other requirements on an individual basis at the discretion of either the Associate Director, Library/Archives or Director& CEO of History Nebraska. Such waiver of fees can be made only upon approval of written application.
