HISTORICAL NOTE

Brown County, Nebraska, located in the north central part of the state, was organized February 19, 1883. The area had been explored, however, as early as 1796 by James Mackey, who made an accurate map of the area. Brown County was originally organized as part of Sioux County, as was most of the northern part of the state. Fort Niobrara was established April 22, 1880. The first election was held July 19, 1883, and Ainsworth was made the permanent county seat.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This record group consists of the records of Brown County, Nebraska, arranged in the following subgroups: 1) Assessor, 1883-1923; 2) Treasurer, 1880-1913; 3) County Board of Commissioners, 1883-1889; 4) County Clerk, 1883-1958; 5) Register of Deeds, 1887-1929; 6) County Court, 1883-1900; 7) District Court, 1883-1952; 8) Superintendent of Schools (no records); and 9) School District Records (no records).

The Assessment records of Brown county have been microfilmed for the years 1882-1923. Tax rolls on microfiche exist for the years 1985-current.

Tax Lists, Subgroup Two, Series One, also exist on microfilm produced in 1986. Also included in this subgroup is one volume of tax sale listings, 1885-1904.

The Marriage records of the county clerk's office, 1883-1958, were microfilmed by the Genealogical Society of Utah in 1997 and a duplicate negative supplied to the Historical Society for reference services. The only other records in Subgroup Four, County Clerk, is a corporation schedule volume, 1929-1934, and miscellaneous fiscal volumes of the clerk's office.

Subgroup Five, Register of Deeds consists of two volumes of Records of Instruments filed, 1887-1943.

Subgroup Six, County Court, consists of four volumes of civil dockets for county court, 1883-1900.

The naturalization records of the county, 1883-1952, are filed in Subgroup Seven, Series One.
