HISTORICAL NOTE

The Nebraska Centennial Commission was formed in 1961 by an act of the state Legislature. Ten members were appointed to the Commission by Governor Frank B. Morrison in November of that year. The Commission was reorganized and expanded to fifteen members in 1963. In 1965 the Unicameral appropriated $600,000 to finance the Centennial celebration to be held in 1967. The Commission set three goals for their Centennial program: (1) to honor the state's heritage; (2) to stage a state-wide birthday party from March 1 to November 25, 1967; and (3) to design programs and projects of lasting value.

To achieve these goals the Commission selected a director, Don Shriner. Under his leadership many projects were undertaken to promote the Centennial. He motivated the Centennial through cooperation with the state, county, and city Centennial committees.

The Commission, among other achievements, assembled the state's largest historical pageant at Ash Hollow, re-enacted the Pony Express Run from St. Joseph, Mo. and the First Night Air-Mail Flight, organized a special Centennial Arbor Day observance, offered Pioneer Recognition Certificates to families who could claim 100 years of continuous residence in the state, promoted the restoration of the Thomas P. Kennard home as the Nebraska Statehood Memorial, by the Nebraska State Historical Society, formed 30 new local historical societies, and hosted the Nebraska Centennial Health Fair.

In connection with the state's Birthday Party the Commission sponsored a raft trip down the Missouri and Mississippi rivers by the one-raft Nebraska Navy, a state-wide contest for the Centennial "Golden Girl", local events in nearly every community in the state, and the Governor's Centennial Celebrity Golf Tournament in Hastings.

Many of the programs which the Commission wished to promote could not be financed by a state agency. For this reason on June, 1964, the Nebraska Centennial Non-Profit Association was formed. The Association could and did finance many of the Centennial programs, raising and spending thousands of dollars. Financed by the Association, the Commission promoted the Centennial Commemorative Medals, franchised Centennial souvenir manufacturers, promoted construction of the Centennial Mall between the Capitol and the State Historical Society in Lincoln, and organized a Centennial Sirloin program to promote Nebraska beef. The Commission was officially dissolved in June, 1968.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of 45 boxes of records of the Nebraska Centennial Commission arranged in two sub-groups containing 13 series.

Subgroup One contains the records of the Nebraska Centennial Commission arranged in ten series: (1) Correspondence and special subject files, 1961-1968; (2) Minutes, NSC, 1961-1968; (3) State Committees, 1964-1968; (4) County Committees, 1964-1968; (5) Centennial Queen Contest, 1966-67; (6) Pioneer Recognition Program, 1967; (7) Financial Records, 1962-1968; (8) Printed Matter, 1964-1968; (9) Newspaper Clippings, 1962-1968; and (10) Audio-visual, 1966-1967. Subgroup Two contains the records of the Nebraska Centennial Non-Profit Association arranged in three series: (1) Correspondence and special subject files, 1964-1968; (2) Medallions, 1966-1968; and (3) Financial Records, 1964-1968.

This collection relates to the activities of the Nebraska Centennial Commission and the Nebraska Centennial Non-Profit Association in the organization and promotion of Centennial Activities in Nebraska, 1961-1968. The Records reflect the planning necessary for the numerous state and local observances of the Centennial year of 1967.

The collection is arranged in order to indicate the separate status of the publicly funded Nebraska Centennial Commission, and the privately supported Centennial Non-Profit Association. However, since the activities of these organizations were so closely related it was not deemed appropriate to form separate collections for the records of each. Wherever possible, records of the two organizations have been maintained as distinct subgroups within the overall collection. This distinction was impossible to maintain with regard to the large amount of newspaper clippings and printed matter. Minutes of the Centennial Commission have been accorded a separate series, while the minutes of the Non-Profit Association may be found within Series One of Subgroup Two, Correspondence and Special Subject files.

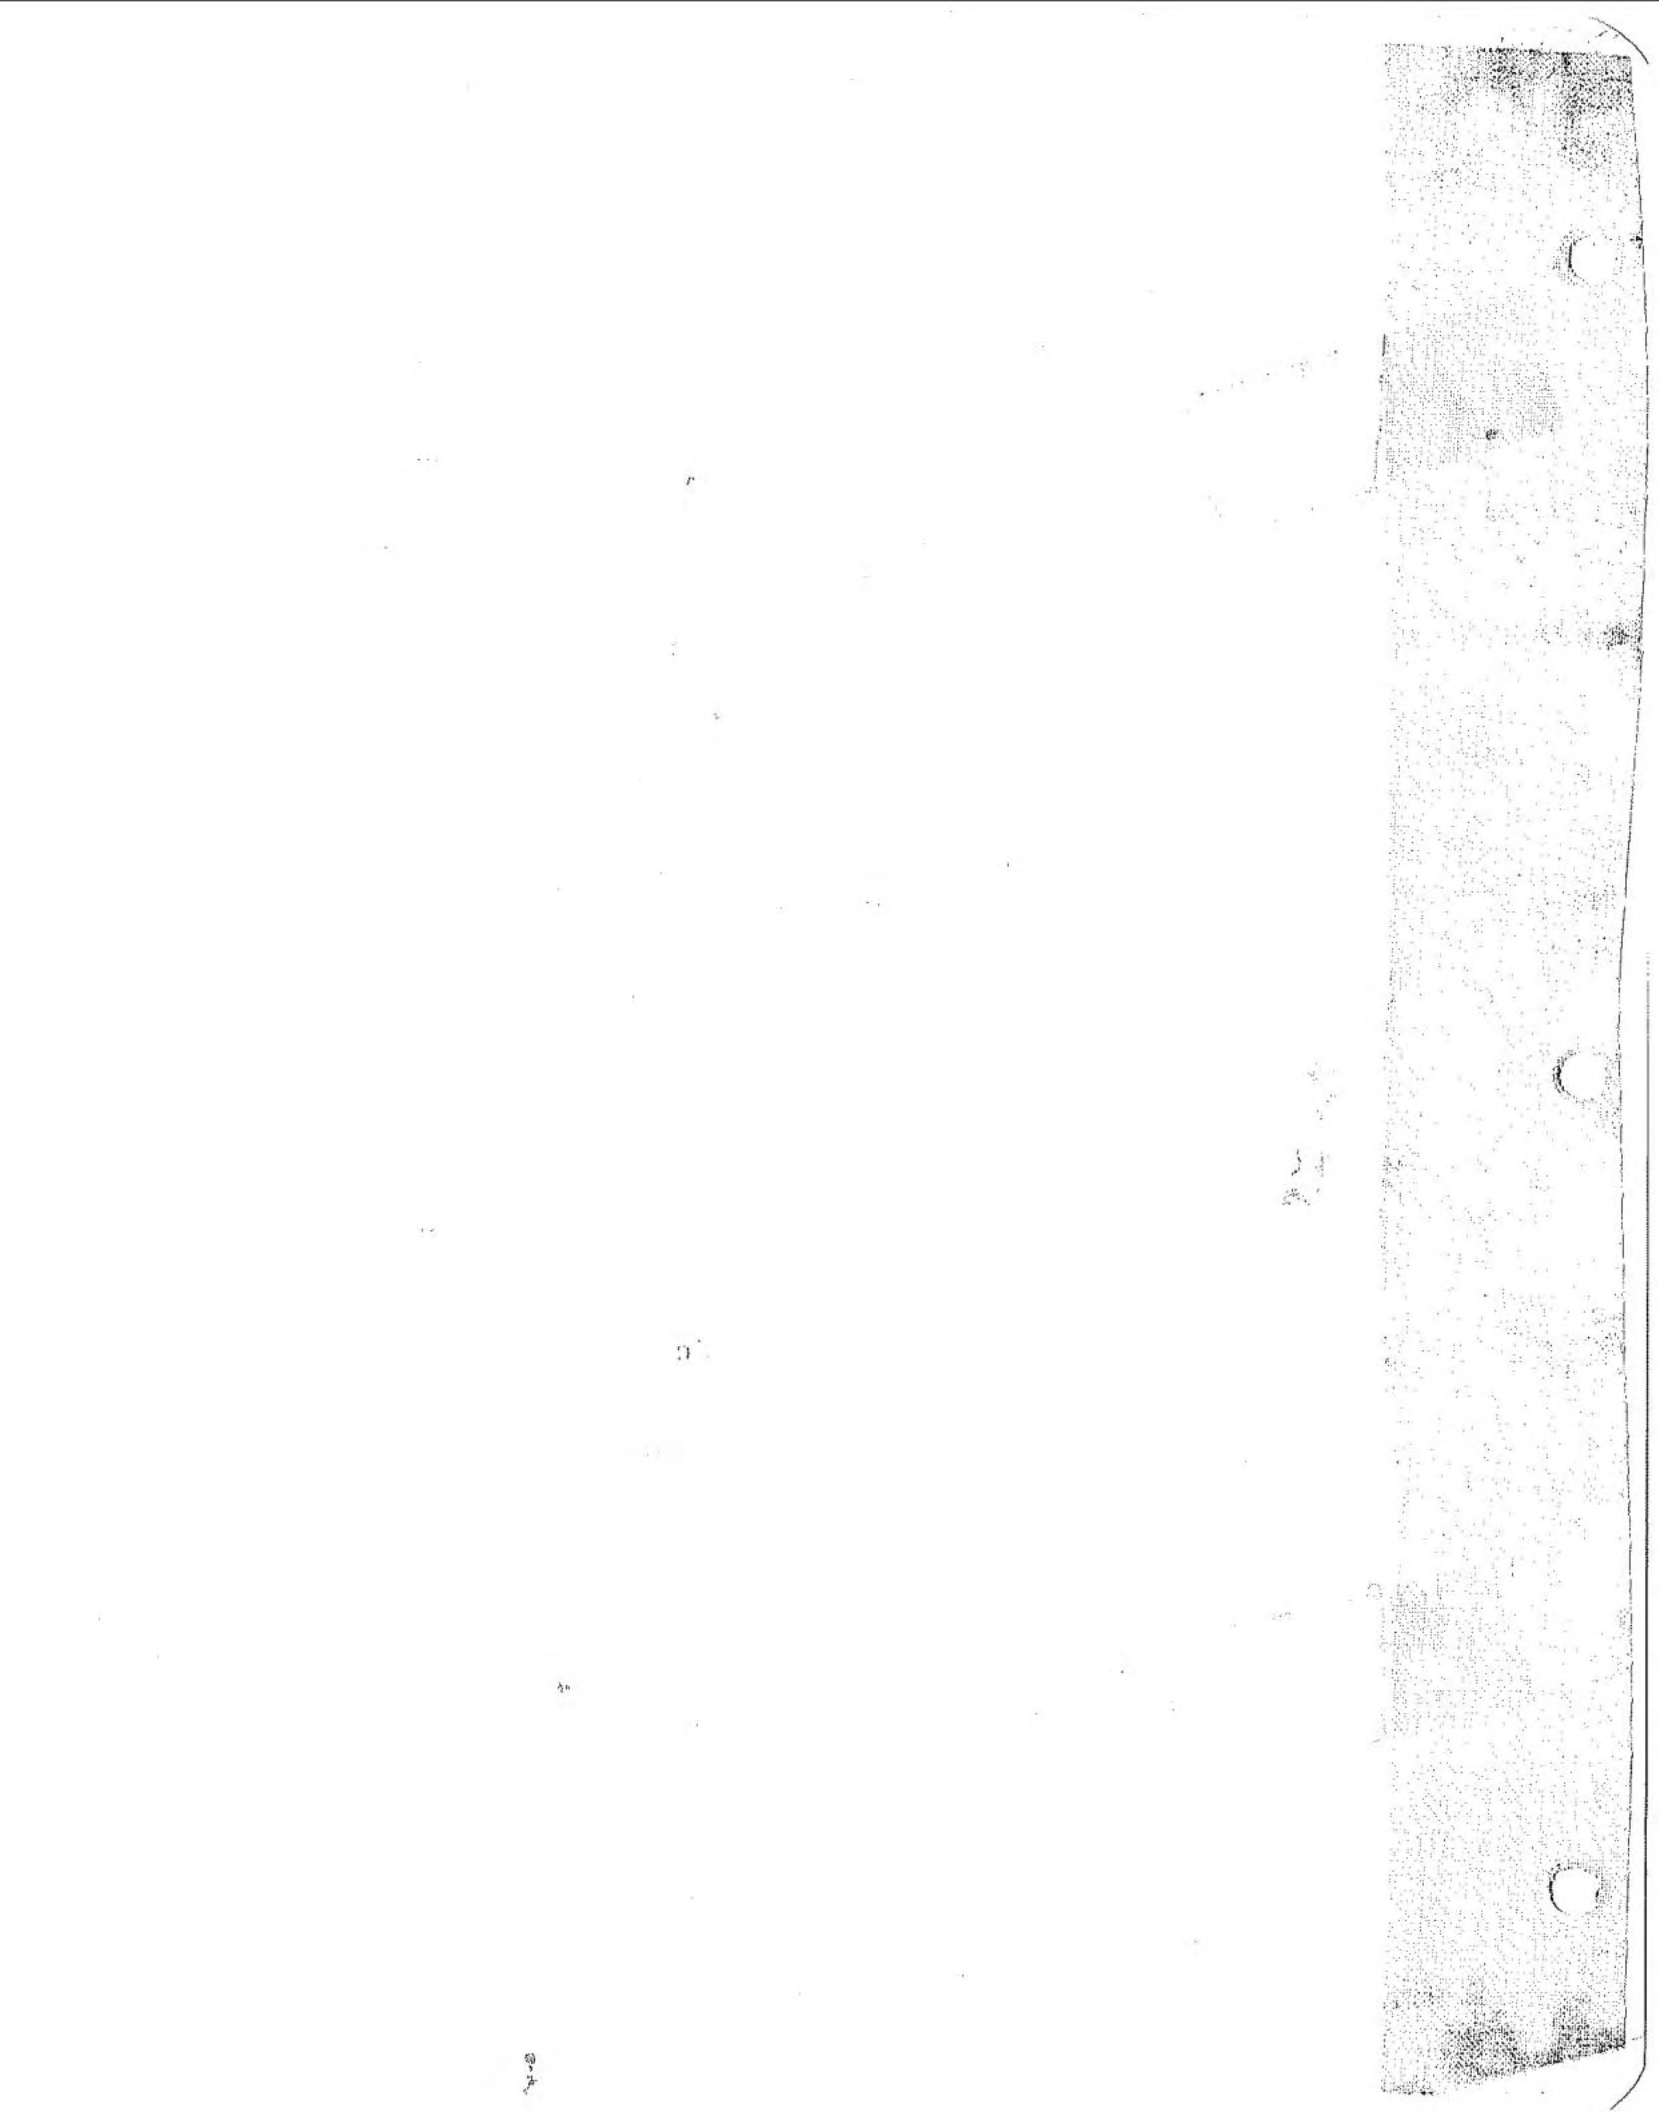

These records were transferred to the State Archives in 1968.
