NOTE: Rollins was appointed Treasurer of the UPRR and began his office April 10, 1871. Some of the early correspondence is addressed to J.M.S. Williams but is answered in the outgoing volumes of the Secretary-Treasurer. The President, Thomas A. Scott was absent in Philadelphia in his capacity as Vice President of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the Vice President, John Duff was absent from April to July 1871. There appears to be no correspondence for the period January to April except one outgoing volume in the Treasurer's Office.

Some inter-departmental correspondence is filed by subject matter, including the correspondence of Sidney Dillon & Jay Gould. This year includes correspondence concerning the consolidation of the Kansas Pacific and the Colorado Central Railroad; discussion of Douglas Co. Bonds; a continuance of the exchange of 10% Incomes for Sinking Fund Bonds. The financial agency of the company changed from Morton, Bliss & Co. to Union Trust Co. in June of this year. Morton, Bliss & Co. continue as agents of Foreign Exchange via Morton, Rose & Co. in London. The UP sued the Government for payment of Transportation, and the U.S. sued the Union Pacific for its debt to the Government on net earnings.

This year opens with the death of Benjamin E. Bates, 14 January 1878; President, National Bank of Commerce, Boston; Director UPRR, 1867-69, 1874-78; and Secretary-Treasurer Trustees. O. F. Davis is no longer the land agent of the railroad, Leavitt Burnham replacing him as Land Commissioner, March 1878. The 5% net earnings case continues with an extensive investigation by Auditor Theophilus French of the U.S. Department of the Interior & decision February 1878 for the Government later appealed in the Supreme Court. Chemical National Bank corresponds in its last year as the NY Bank of UPRR and the Importers & Traders National Bank replaces them. An agreement is signed with R. G. Hazard, 15 November 1878 affecting the suits by and against him, the C.M.A., UPRR & Trustees in Philadelphia, Massachusetts, & Rhode Island but not the Durant suits (see also SG12). There is also a good deal of correspondence concerning land transactions in Nebraska & Wyoming.
