BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Dwight Palmer Griswold was born November 23, 1893 in Harrison, Nebraska. He was the son of Dwight Hubbard and Clarissa Palmer Griswold. He received his early education in the Harrison, Ainsworth, and Gordon Public Schools. He graduated from Kearney Military Academy in 1910, entering Nebraska Wesleyan University in the fall. Two years later, Griswold transferred to the University of Nebraska where he received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1914.

After leaving school, Griswold became a clerk with the First National Bank of Gordon. As a Sergeant with Company I of the Fourth Nebraska Infantry, he served on the Mexican Border in 1916. Following the outbreak of World War I, Griswold enlisted in the U. S. Army as a First Lieutenant with the 127th Field Artillery, being discharged in 1918 as a Captain.

Griswold returned to Gordon and served as cashier and later as a director of the First National Bank. In 1922 he became editor of the Gordon Journal, a post he held until 1940.

Dwight Palmer Griswold entered politics in 1920, winning a seat in the Nebraska House of Representatives on the Republican ticket. He served three successive terms in the State Senate from 1925-1931. Griswold was the Republican nominee for Governor in 1932, 1934, and 1936, but lost in the general elections. In 1940 he won the nomination for the fourth time. He defeated Terry Carpenter and won re-election to two successive terms. In 1946, Griswold made an unsuccessful bid for the Republican nomination for the U.S. Senate, being defeated by incumbent Hugh Butler in the primary.

Following his service as Governor, Griswold joined the Military Government in Germany. He served until June, 1947 when he joined the American Mission for aid to Greece. He retired from this post in 1948 and was elected to the University of Nebraska Board of Regents two years later. In 1951, he became the President of the Gering National Bank. With the death of U. S. Senator Kenneth S. Wherry in 1951, Dwight Griswold entered the race for the unexpired term and won the 1952 election.

Griswold was also active in civic affairs. He was a member and President (1931) of the Nebraska Press Association, a member and State Commander (1930) of the American Legion, a Mason and Shriner, and a member of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity and the Presbyterian Church.

Dwight Palmer Griswold was married to Erma Elliott of Yorkville, Illinois on September 25, 1919. His family also included a daughter, Dorothy Helen (Mrs. John H. Gayer), and a son, Dwight, Jr. DWight Palmer Griswold died 12 April 1954.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This subgroup consists of the official and private papers of Dwight Palmer Griswold in 54 Paige boxes and six scrapbooks arranged in eleven series: (1) Correspondence of the Office of Governor, 1941-47; (2) Records and correspondence of State Agencies and Departments, 1941-1946; (3) Financial Records, 1941-1946; (4) Proclamations and Endorsements, 1941-1947; (5) Speeches, 1941-1946; (6) Miscellaneous records of the Office of Governor; (7) U. S. Senate Files, 1952-1954; (8) News clippings; (9) Campaign files, 1942-1952; (10) Miscellaneous personal records; and (11) Scrapbooks, 1941-1943.

This subgroup relates to the affairs of the Governor's office during the administration of Dwight Palmer Griswold, 1941-1947. Also included are personal records relating to the Gubernatorial Campaign of 1942, the Senatorial campaigns of 1946 and 1952, and Griswold's brief term as U.S. Senator, 1953-54.

The bulk of this collection consists of correspondence relating to Griswold's terms as Governor, 1941-47. Series One contains general correspondence and Series Two relates to Departmental and Agency functions. Also in Series One is topical correspondence relating to specific problems or federal agencies, many dealing with Nebraska's contributions to the war effort from 1941-1945.

Series Four, Proclamations and Endorsements, also contains information relating to political appointments, press releases, and correspondence relating to his statements.

Series Five contains speeches and speech materials and Series Six contains miscellaneous records including biographical materials.

Series Seven relates to Dwight Palmer Griswold service as United States Senator from Nebraska, 1953-1954. The bulk of the series contains correspondence and voting records.

Series Eight consists of campaign files covering the 1942, 1946, and 1952 campaigns for Governor and the Senate. The material consists primarily of voting lists and speeches.

Series Ten includes miscellaneous personal records including disc recordings of Griswold speeches and appearances, 1943-1946. Correspondents include: Bernie D. Berkheimer, 1942-46; Hugh Alfred Butler, 1941-1941; Jackson B. Chase, 1941; and P. W. Reeves, 1943-44; and Kenneth S. Wherry, 1943.

Governor Griswold's filing system was retained whenever possible although minor alterations have been made for the sake of clarity.
