NEWMAN GROVE, NEBRASKA.

1902-1903.

THE ELLESWORTH FAMILY.

The Ellsworth family is an ancient one. It had its origin in Yorkshire England before the Roman invasion.

The progenitor of the Ellsworth family in America, was a descendant of ~~xxxxxx~~/Sir John Ellsworth of the time of Edward 4. we find that in 1372 Sir Richard Ellsworth was privy Counsellor to Charles 1v. Josiah Ellsworth was born in 1629. He came to Connecticut in 1646. On the 16th. of November 1654 he married Elizabeth Helcomb and settled in East Windsor Connecticut. The Ellsworths were noted for honesty, bravery, and patriotism. When the Colonies were Groaning under the burdens imposed by Great Britain declared their indipend-
-ance, Elewn Ellsworth rallied to the support of their native land and engaged in the war for indipendance. A prominent member of the Ellsworth family was Chief Justice Oliver Ellsworth. he was a ~~ff~~ member of the Constitutional Convention assembled in Philidelphia in May 1787. He bore a distinguished part. It is said of him that to his clear discernment and strenuous exertions, coupled with those of his distinguished colluagues Roger Sherman and Judge Patterson, we owe the best government on earth.

In 1789 he was elected U.S. Senator from Connecticut. He was one of the Framers of the Framers of the Constitution of the U.S. and 3d. Chief Justice, under Washington. John Adams said of him at this time, that Ellsworth was one of the firmest pillars of the adminstra-
-tion of Washington. In 1799 he was appointed member of a Commission to make a treaty with France. Daniel Webster on one occasion in the Senate referred to Ellsworth as a gentleman who had left behind on the records of the Government of his country proofs of the clearest intelligence and the utmost purity, and integrity of character. he graduated from Princeton in 1766. and was admitted to the bar in 1771, shortly after this time he was married to Miss Abigail Wolcott.

Another prominent member of the Ellsworth family was William Wolcott Ellsworth, Govenor of Connecticut from 1838 to 1942.

In the Civil war many of the Ellsworths were engaged. notably Col. Elmer Ellington Ellsworth, unfortunately lost his life early in the great struggle, when he was shot as he was tearing down a rebel flag, from the flag staff on a hotel on the banks of the Patomac River below Washington.

Gen. Nawberry of Chicago is a decandant of the Ellsworths family on his mothers side.

The mother of Judge Henry M. Shepard of Chicago was the daughter of John Ellsworth of East Windsor.

The Ellsworths have been noted for their wisdom and strength of character, and have borne their share of the labor in originating and building up the government of the United States.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR LATIMER COUNTY OKLAHOMA.

Ella A. Moorehead PLAINTIFF

VS

J. G. Moorehead DEFENDENT.

DIVORCE DECREE.

This cause coming on to be heard before me, E.F. Lester, Judge of the District Court in and for Latimer County, Oklahoma, on the 28 day of May 1919 a regular court day of said court, upon the petition of the plaintiff and the defendant having been served by publication in this cause more than forty one days before this day; and having been three times called to appear, plead, demur or answer comes not but wholly makes default; and the court having ordered that the allegations in the petition of the plaintiff be taken as confessed, and having heard the oral testimony of the the witnesses sworn and examined in open court, and being fully advised in the premises, and on consideration thereof, finds that all the material allegations and facts alleged in plaintiff's petition are true; that Plaintiff at the time of filing said petition was and had been an actual resident in good faith of the State of Oklahoma for more than one whole ^{year} next preceding the filing of said petition and was at the time of filing said petition an actual resident of Latimer County in good faith., and that the parties to this action, had been legally married as in said petition set forth;

The Court further finds that the said defendant has been guilty of desertion and abandonment, without the fault of the plaintiff for the space of one whole year before the filing of the petition herein, and had not communicated with plaintiff during all of said time.

And the court finds that the plaintiff is without fault in the premises and that by reason of the fault of the defendant, and the acts of the defendant, the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed for.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the marriage relation heretofore existing between said plaintiff and said defendant be and the same is hereby dissolved and both parties are released from the same, and that plaintiff be restored to the name of Ella Black.
