Dear Sir,

Boston,

May 12th 1879.

Yours of May 6th recd.

I am glad to hear that the Omaha Electric Company has organized and I am sure with the list of stockholders that you give opposition will simply be impossible.

Please let us have your probable orders as far in advance as possible, so that we may not delay you, and before ordering your switchboards for the central office I would advise you to correspond with W. Watson as we have a very simple plan, and one by which it is possible to run a central office very expeditiously and economically.

Trusting to hear from you soon,

W. H. Korty,
Omaha. Recd:

I am, Yours truly,

My dear Sir, I will have sent to you as soon as possible a couple full sets of our instruments in order that you may exhibit them, and shew their work. I wrote Mr. Dickey to day in regard to the switch board and apparatus to be used in connection with the exchanges. I think it would be well to let our Mr. Watson supervise the construction of the apparatus for your central office system, as he can bring to bear upon it an experience of over two years.

Very truly yrs.

My dear Sir. I enclose your appointment as agent as made by Mr. Madden. It is affording me more than usual pleasure in doing this for I had some fears that Omaha would not avail herself of the advantages of our system for some time to come, and, remembering all the associations I had more than the usual desire to see Omaha provided. Trusting you will succeed.

I am. Faithfully yours.
