SCHEDULE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY--1909

(Extracts and Deductions from Revenue Law)

Sec. 13. [Property exempt.] The following property shall be exempt from taxes:
 First—All property of the state, counties, and municipal corporations.
 Second—Such other property as may be used exclusively for agricultural and horticultural societies, for schools, religious, cemetery and charitable purposes. In the assessment of real estate, encumbered by a public easement, any depreciation occasioned by such easement shall be deducted in the valuation of such property. The increased value of lands by reason of live fences, and forest trees grown and cultivated thereon, shall not be taken into account in the assessment thereof.
 Sec. 28. [Personalty, by whom listed.] Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:
 First. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds or stocks, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies when the capital stock of such company is not assessed in this state, moneys loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and all other personal property.
 Second. He shall also list all moneys and all other personal property invested, loaned or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of any other person or persons, company, or corporation whatsoever, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from any person or persons, body corporate or politic, whether in or out of the county.
 Third. The property of a minor child shall be listed by his guardian; if he have no guardian, then by the father, if living; if not, by the mother, if living, and if neither father nor mother be living, by the person having such property in charge.
 Fourth. The property of any other person under guardianship, by his guardian; or if he has no guardian, by the person having charge of such property.
 Fifth. The property of the wife, by her husband, if of sound mind; if not, by herself.
 Sixth. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.
 Seventh. The property of corporations whose assets are in the hands of receivers, by such receivers.
 Eighth. The property of corporations, by the president or proper agent or officer thereof.
 Ninth. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.
 Tenth. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by and in the name of such agent as merchandise.
 Sec. 53. [Violations of act as to listing.—Penalty.] If any person shall make a false or fraudulent list, schedule or statement, required by this act, or shall willfully fail or refuse to deliver to the assessor, when called upon for that purpose, a list of the taxable property which under this act is required to be listed, or shall temporarily convert any part of such property into property not taxable, for the fraudulent purpose of preventing such property from being listed and of evading the payment of taxes thereon, or shall transfer or transmit any property to any person with such intent, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars and not more than two thousand dollars. And if any person shall knowingly swear falsely regarding any matter contained in such schedule or interrogatories, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury and be punished accordingly.

Sec. 54. [Same.—Duty of State Board in prosecutions.] It shall be the duty of the State Board of Equalization and Assessment, all county boards, county assessors and deputy assessors, to notify the county attorney of the proper county, of all willful violations of the provisions of this act known to them, and to sign and verify complaints and informations with respect thereto when prepared by the county attorney.

Sec. 55. [Refusal to list.] In every case where any person shall refuse to make out and deliver to the proper deputy assessor the statement required under this act, or shall refuse to make and subscribe to any of the oaths or affirmations required, the deputy assessor shall proceed to ascertain the number of each description of the several enumerated articles of property and the value thereof; and such deputy assessor shall make a note of such refusal in a column opposite the person's name, and the county assessor shall add to such valuations, when returned by the deputy assessor, fifty per centum of the value returned.

For exemptions see section 13.
 Sec. 52. [Interrogatories.—Verification.] Such schedule shall have attached the following interrogatories which the person required to list property shall answer in writing over his signature and under oath:

Interrogatory 1. Are you, or were you, on the first day of April of the present year, the executor of the last will, or the administrator of the estate of any deceased person, or the guardian of the estate of any infant or person of unsound mind, or the trustee of the property of any person, or the receiver of any corporation, association, or firm, or the agent, attorney, or banker investing, loaning or otherwise controlling the money or the property of any person, or the president or accounting officer of any corporation, or a partner, consignee, or pawnbroker? If yes, designate for whom you were then, or now are, acting in such representative or fiduciary capacity, and if you were or now are acting under the authority of any particular court name the court and also state to what court you report? Answer no

Interrogatory 2. Have you, since the first day of April of last year, either personally or through the agency of others, caused all or any part of your taxable property or other property to be temporarily converted either by sale, loan or exchange, or in any other manner, into bonds or other securities of the United States not taxable, or any other property not taxable, with the intention to pay back, return, exchange or dispose of such property after you have made out your tax statement? Or did you on or before the first day of April of the present year, and before you saw this interrogatory, pay back, return, exchange, or dispose of any such property for the purpose aforesaid? Answer no

Interrogatory 3. If you have converted any of your money or property, or money or property of any other person, as inquired of you, then state when the same was so converted or invested, and the time and amount or value thereof?
 Answer: no

Interrogatory 4. Have you, at any time since the first day of April in the preceding year, withdrawn from any bank any moneys there deposited, for the purpose of converting the same into some form of non-taxable property, or for the purpose of sending the same out of the state, or transferring the same to some other person or persons, with the intent to, or purpose of, evading the payment of tax on the same? Answer no

 I, the undersigned, being duly sworn, say that the foregoing statement and schedule is true and contains a full and complete list of all property held by or belonging to me on the first day of April, including all personal property pertaining to merchandising, whether held in actual possession or having been purchased with a view to possession or profit, and all personal property appertaining to manufacturing, and all manufactured articles, whether on hand or owned by me. In all cases where I have been unable to exhibit certain classes of property to the assessor, such property has been fully and fairly described, and its true condition represented, and I have in no case sought to mislead the assessor as to the quantity or quality of the property. I further swear that, since the first day of April of last year, I have not directly or indirectly converted or exchanged any of my property temporarily, for the purpose of evading the assessment thereof for taxes, into non-taxable property or securities of any kind, or transferred or transmitted the same to any person or in any wise for the purpose of evading the assessment thereof, and that my answers to the foregoing interrogatories are true. 1911 SCHEDULE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

ASSESSORS: Please read the following instructions carefully, as a strict compliance with the same will result in a better and more uniform assessment of the taxable property of the state.

First. Fill in the number of items assessed of all classes of property marked No. on the schedule.

Second. See to it that all items, whether listed by the Assessor or the person assessed, are put in the proper line on the schedule so that the property will be properly classified.

Third. The total number and valuation of Horses of different ages should agree with the total number and valuation of Horses of all ages carried out to the right in the total column, and the same thing applies to Mules and Cattle.

Fourth. Item number 69, Shares of Stock in National Banks, and Item number 70, Shares of Stock in State Bank, are intended for the assessment of bank property, but in the case of banks in this state, a separate schedule for assessing the same is provided and only stock in banks of other states should be listed on this schedule.

Sec. 52 of the revenue law provides that the person required to list property shall answer in writing over his signature and under oath, the following interrogatories:

Interrogatory 1. Are you, or were you, on the first day of April of the present year, the executor of the last will, or the administrator of the estate of any deceased person, or the guardian of the estate of any infant or person of unsound mind, or the trustee of the property of any person, or the receiver of any corporation, association, or firm, or the agent, attorney, or banker investing, loaning or otherwise controlling the money or the property of any person, or the president or accounting officer of any corporation, or a partner, consignee, or pawnbroker? If yes, designate for whom you were then, or now are, acting in such representative or fiduciary capacity, and if you were or now are acting under the authority of any particular court name the court and also state to what court you report? Answer no

Interrogatory 2. Have you, since the first day of April of last year, either personally or through the agency of others, caused all or any part of your taxable property or other property to be temporarily converted either by sale, loan or exchange, or in any other manner, into bonds or other securities of the United States not taxable, or any other property not taxable, with the intention to pay back, return, exchange or dispose of such property after you have made out your tax statement? Or did you on or before the first day of April of the present year, and before you saw this interrogatory, pay back, return, exchange, or dispose of any such property for the purpose aforesaid? Answer no

Interrogatory 3. If you have converted any of your money or property, or money or property of any other person, as inquired of you, then state when the same was so converted or invested, and the time and amount or value thereof?
 Answer: no

Interrogatory 4. Have you, at any time since the first day of April in the preceding year, withdrawn from any bank any moneys there deposited, for the purpose of converting the same into some form of non-taxable property, or for the purpose of sending the same out of the state, or transferring the same to some other person or persons, with the intent to, or purpose of, evading the payment of tax on the same?
