

General Records of the Office of the Governor

Creator: Nebraska. Office of the Governor
Identifier: RG001, SG001
Date: 1854-1998, 2011
Extent: 105 archival boxes, 33 record center boxes, 115 volumes, 3 half-size archival boxes, and 2 index card boxes; approximately 111 cubic feet
Language: English

Scope and content

The records in this subgroup are from the Office of the Governor. Some records were created by the Governor’s Office as part of the Governor’s work, such as issuing proclamations or appointing people to positions. Other records were sent to the Governor by state agencies, boards and commissions, as they reported to the Governor about their work. Because of this, many records documenting early state agency activities can be found within this subgroup.

Records date from the 1850s through to the 1990s. They are arranged into six series based on type of record. The six series are:

Series 1: Departmental Reports and Subject Files.....	2
Series 2: Proclamations.....	33
Series 3: Executive Appointments	56
Series 4: Liquor Permits	58
Series 5: Admiralships.....	62
Series 6: Governor’s Residence	69

See the Processing Information note for further information about the history of the arrangement of this subgroup.

Processing Information

The arrangement of this subgroup is a legacy arrangement. It is different from how governors’ records are typically organized at the State Archives. The majority of our governors’ records holdings are arranged into subgroups by administration. Each person who held office has their own subgroup, and series (such as correspondence, reports, proclamations etc.) are found in the subgroup of the originating administration.

This subgroup is arranged a little differently, as it spans many administrations. A previous archivist arranged the records this way but the project was unfinished; there was no processing note and no completed finding aid inventorying the records. Rather than reprocess everything, the decision was made to identify all the records within this subgroup down to the folder title and create a finding aid in order to make the records accessible. Going forward, records will not be added to this subgroup. Instead, incoming governors' records will be added to the appropriate subgroup based on administration, as described above.

This finding aid was created by Anna Holley, State Archivist, with assistance from Helen Martinez, student worker, in 2022.

Series 1: Departmental Reports and Subject Files

Date: 1865-1936, 1950

Extent: 59 archival boxes, 21 volumes; approximately 33.7 cubic feet

Scope and content: This series consists of reports created by state agencies, boards, and commissions that were sent to the Office of the Governor. It also contains some correspondence and subject files kept by the Governor about the work of state agencies. Records date from 1865-1950, with the bulk dating 1880s-1930s. The series is arranged by creating agency, with folders grouped and numbered by agency. More detailed descriptions of the contents of certain folders have been noted throughout the inventory. See the final few boxes of this series for miscellaneous records.

Series 5: Admiralships

Date: 1948-1998

Extent: 4 archival boxes, 2 index card boxes, 14 record center boxes; approximately 18 cubic feet

Scope and content: This series consists of records pertaining to admiralships issued by the Governor. The majority of the records are arranged by the administration that issued them and then either chronologically or alphabetically by the name of the recipient. Some records are unprocessed and may have no particular order within their governor grouping. After 1998, admiralships can be found in the subgroup of their originating governor.

Historical note: The Great Navy of the State of Nebraska began in 1930 when Governor Charles W. Bryan went on vacation and Lieutenant Governor T. W. Metcalfe took over the affairs of state. Acting Governor Metcalf wanted to do something to honor his friends, so he created the Great Navy of the State of Nebraska, and appointed his friends as Admirals. Since then, Nebraska Admiralships have been bestowed on many notable Nebraskans and others. An application is available on the governor's office website stating, "Admirals in the Great Navy of the State of Nebraska are individuals who have contributed in some way to the state, promote the Good Life in Nebraska, and warrant recognition as determined by the Governor."

Series 6: Governor's Residence

Date: 1956-1997, 2011

Extent: 1 archival box; .5 cubic feet

Scope and content: This series relates to the Nebraska Governor's Residence, sometimes referred to as the Governor's Mansion or Governor's Residential Mansion. It consists of brochures, newspaper clippings, restoration paperwork, and one scrapbook about a china dinnerware project.

Historical Note: Nebraska has had two official governor's mansions. The first was purchased in 1899. The second was built in 1956 and is the current official residence of the governor. It is a modified Georgian Colonial home, which was formally opened on March 17, 1958. Governor Anderson was the first governor to live at the Residence. The house has 27 major rooms which includes 5 bedrooms, 12 bathrooms, 4 fireplaces and a 3-stall garage. The total square footage is 15,340.
