

COL. W. F. CODY, (BUFFALO BILL) PRESIDENT.

NATE SALSURY, VICE PRES & MANAGER.

JOHN M. BURKE, GENERAL MANAGER.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West
AND
CONGRESS OF ROUGH RIDERS OF THE WORLD.

NEW YORK OFFICES:
NO. 1 CHAMBER STREET,
(AND PARK ROW.)

Summer 1894.

AT AMBROSE PARK, S. BROOKLYN, N.Y.
Adjoining 39th Street Ferry.

Labels on map: GREATER NEW YORK, SOUTH BROOKLYN, AMBROSE PARK, BUFFALO BILL'S WILD WEST.

Portraits: COL. W. F. CODY, NATE SALSURY.

Small text: A. HOEN & CO. BALTIMORE

October 6th, 1894.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:--

This is to certify that Mr. George Johnson has been employed in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Company during the past three seasons. His work and general conduct have been irreproachable. I would recommend him to any one who wishes a good reliable intelligent man.

Sam Hammit
Chief of Cowboys.

COL. W. F. CODY, (BUFFALO BILL) PRESIDENT.

NATE SALSBERY, VICE PREST & MANAGER.

JOHN M. BURKE, GENERAL MANAGER.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West
 AND
CONGRESS OF ROUGH RIDERS OF THE WORLD.

NEW YORK OFFICES:
 NO. 1 CHAMBER STREET
 (AND PARK ROW.)

Summer 1894.
 AT AMBROSE PARK, S. BROOKLYN, N.Y.
 Adjoining 39th Street Ferry.

NEW YORK OFFICES:
 NO. 1 CHAMBER STREET
 (AND PARK ROW.)

A HOEN & CO. BALTIMORE

1894.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to certify that George W. Johnson has been in the employ of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Company during the past three years. He has rendered his services in a conscientious and careful manner to the satisfaction of this company.

W. F. Cody
Buffalo Bill

HOFFMAN HOUSE,
MADISON SQUARE,
NEW YORK.

Feb 5th 96

My Dear Johnson

There is always a place for you. We open in Philadelphia
April 18th I want ship my horses from Sheridan. If you know of a way up top rider
and a reliable sober
man. I will give him
a job -

Leave a note for me at the Sheridan Inn -
I will be there about
March first - Nobody

THE BUFFALO BILL
WILD WEST

677

And Congress of Rough Riders OF THE WORLD.

Admit One.
Compliments of _____

To Whom this May concern -

George Johnson is sent to find black horse left in New York