

Transfer of Public Records to State Archives

Records Transfer Instructions

1. Review your records retention schedules: Only records with the disposition of “Transfer to the State Archives” or “Review by State Archives for Possible Transfer” are eligible for transfer to the State Archives.
2. Organize your records: If you are transferring more than one type of record, ensure records are separated by schedule item number. For information about organizing born digital and/or electronic records, see Preparing Electronic Records for Transfer to the State Archives.
3. Complete this transfer form: It can be completed and signed in Adobe Acrobat, or printed, signed, and scanned. This form must be emailed to the State Archivist before records can be transferred. Save a copy of the completed form for your records.
4. Contact the State Archivist: To coordinate the details of your records transfer, email the State Archivist at anna.holley@nebraska.gov.
 - Paper records may need to be dropped off at the State Archives offsite storage location at 5050 N. 32nd St., Lincoln, NE.
 - Electronic records may need to be moved to an external hard drive or transferred electronically.
5. Note that once records are transferred to the State Archives, they become the property of the State Archives (Neb. Rev. Stat. §82-105). The State Archives may remove selected records in accordance with standard archival practices to ensure efficient access, organization and enduring historical value (Neb. Rev. Stat. §82-107). Records transferred to the State Archives are available for use at the Nebraska State Historical Society research room at 1500 R Street, Lincoln, NE.
