Nebraska City, Otoe County, Nebraska: Windmill manufacturer

Size: 59 boxes

BACKGROUND NOTE

The Kregel Windmill Company operated as a commercial enterprise in the same building in Nebraska City, Nebraska from 1903 to 1991. The firm had been established in Nebraska City on August 19, 1879, as a general manufacturer of goods for the agricultural trade. Soon it began producing windmills developed by George F. Kregel. The company continued to produce factory-made water pumping windmills until their manufacture ended due to the rationing of raw materials during World War II. During the 20th century, the water well maintenance and pump repairs business came to dominate the Kregel's business. The company remained an active commercial entity in Nebraska City until the death of George Kregel's son, Arthur in 1991.*
